

Eid packages from Choice Holidays

MUSCAT: Choice Holidays, the leisure division of National Travel and Tourism (NTT) has lined up many exciting holiday packages to various exotic destinations for the Eid holidays.

A senior spokesperson says, "All these packages are based on fixed departures on September 9 or 10, 2010 and in most of our packages, customers can enjoy the advantage of the special rates that we have negotiated with selected airlines and ground handling agents based on minimum group sizes.

For example, the 4 days fixed departure package to Cairo-Egypt with economy class air-ticket on Oman Air, daily breakfast, return airport transfers and various sight-seeing tours including half day Pyramids tour, dinner on Nile Cruise and sound and light show is being offered at a special rate of RO. 249.

If you think that is amazing, then consider that the 5-day Amman-Jordan package with daily breakfast, transfers and sightseeing tour is only for RO. 253. Similarly an all inclusive 5 days package of Bangkok, Pattayah-Thailand and Istanbul-Turkey can be purchased at RO. 266 and RO.269 respectively. Also on offer are the 6 days tour of Nepal being sold at RO. 276 and 5 days Kenya Safari for RO. 596"

In addition to these packages, Choice Holidays also offers more than 100 packages which can be booked online at www.nttoman-holidays.com. Choice Holidays is manned by professional tour consultants who offer itineraries in line with the customer's requirements. It has an exclusive Arabic speaking cell and VIP handling section.
